

AWCP President's Message

March, 2020

Crystal McLain, WCCP

Hello again!

I would like to thank everyone who made it out to the AWCP Educational Luncheon held at Sienna Roseville on February 19th. It was a sold-out event!

Our guest speaker, Ryan L. Frazier, Esq., provided knowledgeable insight into AB5 and we got a lot of great feedback from those in attendance. Thank you.

So, what's next?

We have our AWCP Educational Luncheon on March 18th at Sienna in Roseville on the topic of third-party settlements: "Making the Most out of Someone Else's Money: What you need to know about Third Party Settlements." Charleton Pearse, Esq. and Courtney Masterson, Esq. will be our guest speakers. Please register now as you have a chance to win a Michael Kors Women's Watch! This great prize will be raffled off on behalf of Lenahan, Lee, Slater, Pearse & Majernick.

We know that tax season can get you down, so we're putting on an additional educational luncheon on Tax Day April 15th. This is sure to provide you a valuable return. More info to come.

The AWCP Academy Education Committee is hard at work planning our next mini conference. For those of you interested in learning more about "Ratings," this conference is for you. The "Nuts and Bolts of Workers' Comp" will be held at the University of Phoenix Sacramento Campus on May 15th. Register now!

One of my favorite events is right around the corner. The AWCP 2020 Golf Tournament is scheduled for June 12th at the Lincoln Hills Golf Club. We're very excited to bring you this year's theme: "Tastes Around the World!" Sponsor a hole and get a chance to win "Best Of" in one of these five categories: "Professional Chef," "Amateur Chef," "Adult Beverage," "Decorated Tee" and "Giveaways". A huge thank you to our Title Sponsor Laughlin, Falbo, Levy and Moresi, LLP. It's a quick-selling event every year; but we still have a few foursomes and sponsorships available. Reach out and register today before it's sold out.

AWCP's Summer Fun Event at Crawdads will be down on the river on July 23rd from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. The recently remodeled Crawdads looks great and is going to be the perfect place to listen to great music, enjoy cool drinks, eat fantastic food and mingle with other professionals on a hot summer day.

As always, I want to thank you for your membership to AWCP. Your dedication and participation make this association what it is today.

Respectfully,

Crystal McLain, WCCP
