

Workers' Compensation Defense Attorney

Albert & Mackenzie is an established and growing California Workers' Compensation Defense Firm with 12 offices located in California. Named a "Great Place to Work" in California, we are seeking Workers' Compensation Defense Attorneys to join our team. We have openings available in all offices and are looking for candidates with significant interest and/or experience in workers' compensation.

Qualifications

- Bar License from the State of California
- Highly motivated, results driven, high energy and a sense of urgency
- Strong attention to detail, with commitment to outstanding customer service
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Ability to juggle multiple tasks efficiently with little supervision
- Client-focused, with the ability to deliver results

Benefits

- Competitive salary range between $90,000 - $180,000
- Flexible work from home ability (Remote optional)
- Work/Life Balance
- Employer sponsored Medical and Vision coverage for the employees
- Employer sponsored Life, ADD&D, Short Term Disability and Long Term Disability
- Voluntary dental and additional life coverage
- Flexible Spending Plan to include Dependent Care and Health Care plans
- Ancillary benefits such as Accident and Critical Illness offered
- 401(k) plan with employer contribution

About Albert & Mackenzie

Albert and Mackenzie supports its attorneys with ongoing education. It has great training and mentoring programs to help you succeed. The Albert & Mackenzie Executive, Management, IT and Support teams work together to ensure the firm's success in the industry. A leader in working in a paperless office over thirteen years, Albert & Mackenzie's systems and processes allow for maximum efficiency, engagement, and personal satisfaction. We hire top talent and focus on promotion at all levels.

Please submit your resume to recruitment@albmac.com or <https://albmac.com/about/careers/> .